

CENTRAL NEW ENGLAND BRITTANY CLUB FIELD TRIAL

September 25, 2025

The officers and members of the Central New England Brittany Club invite you to our field trial to be held at the John Flaherty Field Trial Area, 81 Tromley Road, East Windsor, CT.

Please note the following information:

- Per state regulations, camping is permitted 1 day prior to and 1 day after the trial.
- Southern New England Brittany Club is running three days of field trials from Friday, Sept. 26th to Sunday Sept. 28th. Note these are two separate trials.
- CNEBC's trial will offer both horseback and walking stakes.
- The club requests that dogs not be left on stakeouts unless someone is in the immediate vicinity.
- Be sure all horses are properly secured after the day's running.
- Lunch will be available.
- Wrangler, David Powell - 814-883-3539, will be at this trial. A limited number of horses are available, on a first-come first-served basis, with contestants, judges, and bird planters taking precedence. The wrangler will have horses for riders of varying skill level – novice riders and children are welcome to ride in the gallery. Handlers/spectators, please make your own arrangements for horses with on the day of the trial.
